

SRS Document

System Requirements Specification Statement (SRS):

1. The system is a hotel automation software that manages the reservation, booking, and payment of guest rooms.
2. The system includes an integrated database that stores guest information, room types, rates, availability, and reservation history.
3. The system can also accommodate requests for catering services, which are submitted by the catering services manager.
4. The system